G·Sn·File No. 6 of 1914-15

Serial No.

In response to the notice calling for applications for temporary vacancies in the General and Revenue Secretariat, 77 applications have been received. Out of these, one has passed one branch of the B.A. Examination, 23 are Matriculates and 20 are Secondary School Leaving Certificate holders. The others are all not sufficiently qualified. Selections for the temporary vacancies have therefore been confined only to the former.

The number of available temporary vacancies now is -

8 on Rs.25 per mensem.

4 on Rs.20 per mensem.

The Secondary School Leaving Certificate holders resident in Mysore were asked to submit information in regard to the marks scored by them in the School and Public Examinations. The Matriculates and Secondary School Leaving Certificate holders residing in Bangalore were required to present themselves here with their testimonials. 24 candidates appeared and the marks obtained by such of the Secondary School Leaving Certificate holders as furnished the same have been scrutinized and they are noted in the Register of applicants herewith put up. These 24 persons were also examined in English Composition and their capacities judged. As some of the applicants happen to be be temporary clerks of the General and Revenue Secretariat, the good work done by them has also been taken into consideration in submitting recommendations for filling the above vacancies. The names of the candidates selected for the above vacancies are set forth in two lists "A" and "B" submitted herewith.

List "A" gives the names of men selected for vacancies on Rs.25. Ten names are recommended as against 8 vacancies. The first eight in the list may be appointed and in case any of these are not willing to accept the appointments offered, the same may be given to 9 and 10 lower down in the list in succession. Three of the approved candidates are non-Graduates with proper qualifications.

List "B" gives the names of men selected for vacancies on Rs.20. Though the number of vacancies on Rs.20 is shewn only as 4, two more vacancies will become available if the recommendation concerning names in list "A" is approved, as two who are drawing Rs.20 already in this office are recommended for places on Rs.25. As against these 6 vacancies, 7 names are recommended for the reason set forth above as against names in List "A". Specific reasons for selection

The character of Arbaces was one of those intricate and varied webs, in which the even mind that sat within it was sometimes confused and perplexed. In him, the son of a fallen dynasty, the outcast of a sunken people, was that spirit of discontented pride which ever rankles in one of a sterner mould, who feels himself inexorably shut from the sphere in which his fathers shone, and to which Nature as well as birth no less entitles himself. This sentiment hath no benevolence; it wars with society, it sees enemies in mankind. But with this sentiment did not go its common companion, poverty.
